International Labour Conference 2013

As part of ICYCW's representation work, the International Secretariat of the ICYCW is mandated to bring the voice of young workers from all over the world to different International forums and organizations. This year the International Secretariat of ICYCW and Joel Bonita from YCW Portugal, participated in the 102nd session of the International Labour Conference, in Geneva. The main agendas in which ICYCW participated were; Employment and social protection in the new demographic context, Social dialogue, and Sustainable development, decent work and green jobs. In addition to this, the ICYCW worked together with other International NGO's towards consolidating our efforts and voice in the International Labour Organization's agendas. ☒
